Information received from CC Ewert and CC Martin Worth from Cornwall Council's transport team "Following feedback from passengers, we are working with bus operators to offer an affordable solution, to mitigate the financial impact from the removal of the monthly ticket and to continue offering a wide range of subsidised bus fares for passengers in Cornwall. We aim to provide more information in the coming days. While the decision to remove several ticketing options was based on data showing extremely low usage on this type of ticket we appreciate that this specific ticket has impacted on children who use bus services to travel to school, but are not eligible for home to school transport."
